PREFACE

The aim of the editors and publishers of this North Montgomery New World Dictionary is to provide a single volume of student memorabilia. This reference is not restricted in its selection of students photographed for this work.

The first Flashback was published in 1971 and quickly won the esteem of student and general reader. The Flashback has been published annually each consecutive year since 1971. This seventh in the series of publications incorporates the best aspects of its predecessors and introduces new features designed to add to its usefulness. In the form of a dictionary we hope to simplify the format of the yearbook. Under alphabetical headings we hope to ease the burden of leafing through unnecessary pages. At a mere glance one will be able to determine the location of many pertinent school activities.

The editors are neither so naive or so opinionated as to think their selections are flawless. Infelcities, even errors, of selections are inevitable; but these, the editors believe, are errors of judgement and not the result of bias of any sort. Their correction, indeed the improvement of the editorial content as a whole, not only of the selection of pictures but of the data presented, calls for the co-operation of the consultants of this Dictionary. The book is planned to provide the greatest amount of pleasure to the largest number of users. The editors will welcome every criticism or suggestion, no matter how minute, designed to improve future publications.

"Dark of the Moon" was presented on November 18 and 19. Twenty-six students took part in the production, under the direction of Dale Pitzer. The theme centered around a witch boy (John) falling in love with a mortal girl (Barbara) and the townspeople's attempts to relinquish their relationship. Homecoming

During the afternoon, at the pep session leading up to the big game, the Seniors learned that it is whether you win or lose and not how you play the game. The Seniors walked away with first place honors in the overall competition.

Joy Cohee "reigned" as queen over the evening festivities. Joy was crowned by last year's queen, Karen Rogers.

... became a popular phrase among people in the mid-west as coal miners waged a nation-wide strike, lasting well over 100 days. Electrical utilities were forced to impose cutbacks on schools and industries as their coal supplies dwindled. School activities were curtailed and some basketball games, concerts, and dances were rescheduled. In order to meet a mandatory 50% electrical cut-back, audio-visual aids, stage lights, shop machines, kilns, and the electrical cooking units had to be shut down. Hallway lights, clocks, the school bells, the coke machine, the swimming pool, and the greenhouse were all shut off. This made life at North Montgomery different, to say the least.

Thanks For The Memories

Thanks for the memories
In which you've played a part
For they are always nearest
And dearest to my heart . . .
Thanks for all the memories
That are yours and mine alone,
For they recall so many Special memories I have known . . .
Thanks for all the memories
That time can never dim . . .
I could never repay you
For the joy I've found in them.

"WE LOVE YOU NEW YORK!"

During Spring Break, the Concert Choir (under the direction of Denny Yount) and the Symphonic Band (under the direction of Gary Hiller) toured the East Coast, performing in Washington D.C., Philadelphia and New York City. While in New York City, many students were fortunate enough to see "A Chorus Line" or "The Wiz". Another highlight was the famed Radio City Music Hall's Rockettes. The seven days were exciting, educational and exhausting. Everyone returned completely worn out but had many exciting stories to share with their friends.

peregrinate: to travel over.

prom: a formal high school dance given by the junior class.

A "Seadream" of the underworld began with hard work and toil but ended as a night of soft sound and colors. The class of '79 dedicated the prom on May 20, 1978 to our seniors. Favors of books and glasses filled with shells were given. The evening was highlighted as everyone danced to the sound of Thundermugs, a band from Indianapolis. As the night flowed on Lorraine Miles and Jeff Ryker were honored by being crowned Queen and King. The night proceeded on to the bowling alley for an after prom of excitement!

GIRLS BASKETBALL

The 1977-78 Lady Charger Basketball Team had many triumphs along with many weather cancelled games and practices. This 13-3 season however, will long be remembered, as the year that Andra Harshbarger made the All-Star team.

The year was also highlighted by a combined Holiday Tourney of which North Montgomery's Girl's and Boy's were both Champions. The Chargers upset Southmont by one point in the opening round of Sectional action, 53-52. In the second game of Sectional play, North Montgomery downed Lebanon, 59-35. Finally, in a heart-throbbing Championship game, the come-from-behind Chargers fell shortly losing a tough fought battle to Western Boone, 58-60.

Another record set for the Charger runners was the advancement of Mike Hayes to the Regional—the first runner from North Montgomery to ever run past the Sectional.

A large, complex collage of black and white photographs, tilted at various angles, depicting various scenes of student life. The collage includes portraits of individuals, group shots of students, and scenes of activities. Notable elements include a student in a "MONTANA" sweatshirt, a student in a "DO NOT ENTER" sign, and a student in a "12" jersey. The overall composition is dynamic and visually busy, representing a collection of memories from a school year.

DEDICATION:

For Many Years Of Service In Both Athletics And Administration In The North Montgomery School System, We The Charger Flashback Staff Dedicate The 1977-78 Yearbook To Mr. Emerson Mutterspaugh.

Valerie,
Boy, I think I've known your longer than almost everyone in our class!
We go back quite a ways!
We have alot in common as far as values go - I hope - I think! HA! I couldn't begin to remember all the things we have done together but they were all fun! Remember always to rely on God and He will pull you through everything!! Don't forget about prom last year we put alot of miles in together!! Have fun and be good! Your really a close friend! Love and luck always! Will always be there!
Friends!
Kim
(Myers)

Val, Luck in all
